Hobart City Band Inc. presents Free Conductor Development Workshop

Hobart City Band would like to invite aspiring and practicing conductors to participate in our professional development opportunity for conductors.

Utilising the skills of the musicians of Hobart Wind Symphony, one of the premier ensembles of its kind in the country, applicants will work with the musical director, Simon Reade, through conducting and rehearsal techniques.

Applicants will be asked to prepare one movement from one of the Holst Suites for Concert Band or from the English Folk Song Suite by Vaughan Williams. Candidates will be invited to participate on the 5th of March, 2026

The workshop will be held from 7pm – 10pm in the music department of Hobart City High School, Ogilvie Campus, access via St John's Avenue.

Places are strictly limited and offered at the discretion of the organising committee. Successful applicants will be offered a place to participate in or to audit the workshop. Candidates who have previously worked with Simon will be offered further opportunities to extend themselves in this workshop.

To apply, participants will need to hold a current working with vulnerable people check and email an expression of interest to simonreade9@gmail.com
